HEY, ME TOO! Originally, this was to be an end-of-summer picture of two boys at the edge of the Community Park pool. But the Town Topics' photographer badly underestimated the enthusiasm and energy of youngsters standing nearby. By the time he had his camera adjusted this is what he saw through the camera lens. The pool was crowded as temperatures on Tuesday - one week before the start of school - climbed into the 90s.

Will Public Housing Pass The Drainage Tests?
Two Meetings Next Week Should Give Answer

Site plans for the Yedlin public housing project on Mt. Lucas Road will be examined once again --- and unquestionably commented on once again — when the site plan review board and the Princeton Regional Planning Board meet after the Labor Day holiday.

Three members — a bare quorum — of the site plan review board will meet Tuesday at 4 p.m. in Borough Hall to examine Benedict Yedlin's plans, and see whether they meet the conditions laid down by the Planning Board back in June when it gave conditional approval to the site plans.

Then, the next night -- Wednesday, September 3 — the Planning Board will hold its regular public meeting at 8 p.m. in Borough Hall, to consider the site plan review committee's recommendation. It's the only item on the Planning Board agenda, so everyone will have plenty of time to talk. Opponents of the 100-unit project are expected to be out in full force.

A. Perry Morgan, chairman of the site plan review committee, said this week he was "95 percent sure" his committee will have its recommendation ready for the Planning Board's public meeting.

"Our meeting won't be a discussion-style meeting," he said, adding that two of the three members who will be present, have already seen Mr. Yedlin's proposals for meeting the conditions. The three site plan members who will be present are Carl Lindbloom, Richard Henkel and Mr. Morgan.

100 Units Too Many? Is 100 units too many for this site? That question is sure to be a prime one at the Planning Board meeting. Opponents of the project say 100 is too many, and even some proponents think so, too. Last month, the Township's attorney in this case, Joseph Stonaker, advised Township Committee that the Planning Board has the authority to reduce the number of units if it thinks the water-retention basin (for example) is inadequate.

That retention basin was Number One in the Planning Board's list of requirements. The board told Mr. Yedlin he had to have an on-site water retention basin designed to retain at least 80 percent of the increased storm-water that would accrue as a result of construction on the site.

"Our basin will take care of 100 percent of the additional water, not just 80 percent," says Wayne Patterson, engineer of Van Note-Harvey Associates, who is assigned to the project.

He describes a grassy basin with gentle slopes and a maximum depth of about five or six feet. A big pipe, terminus of all the collector lines, will enter the basin, and a small pipe will handle the discharge.

"Water will back up in the basin, and the outlet will discharge the amount of water equal to what was there before the land was developed," he explains.

The basin will have landscaping and trees, Mr. Patterson says, and will be lined with a grass recommended by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service. It's a grass requiring minimum maintenance.

"The basin won't be visible from the public roads, except for the slight embankment," Mr. Patterson assures, "it will be functional and not an eyesore."

Erosion Control. Mr. Patterson has also developed plans for controlling erosion during construction, in answer

Ever meet a salesperson that loves to come to work? We've got them here at the Country Mouse.

I don't mean that some mornings they wouldn't like to sleep a little later, or even, once in a while, have a long leisurely breakfast. But there they go every morning, peddling to work with big smiles on their faces, looking forward to another day at the Country Mouse. Just look out your door any morning, just before 9:30, and wave as they go by . . . or better yet, stop in at the shop to see Dania or Edie. You're always sure of a friendly hello, at

to the requirement that Mr. Yedlin have soil stabilization plans showing both temporary and permanent ways of managing the soil on this steep and rocky site.

The soil-erosion plan, Mr. Patterson says, was developed with the Soil Conservation Service, using their standards. He met with Service engineers, as the plans were worked out.

Berms --- small embankments about 18 inches high — will restrain the silt and mud of the steep slopes while the project is being built, channeling soil into a basin (later to become the retention basin). The plan, Mr. Patterson believes, will keep silt on the site and not allow it to spill onto neighboring properties or into the drainage system. After the site has been "stabilized," in Mr. Patterson's words, the basin will be cleaned and planted with grass to become the retention basin.

Details of these plans have been discussed as they progressed, with Township Engineer Joseph Hodak, Mr. Patterson said.

"And we met informally this summer with some of the site plan people, just to get their feeling."

Landscaping has been planned by Edmund Wilson, of the J. Robert Hillier architecture firm. The Planning Board required plans showing shade trees, screen planting and ground cover.

For deciduous shade -- evergreens don't give enough shade – Mr. Wilson will use grey birch, Kwansam cherry, weeping willow, crimson King maple, flowering dogwood, spreading English yew and little-leaf linden, among others. Pine trees, in variety, will be used for screening.

For foundation planting, he's suggesting rhododendron, such broadleaf evergreens as holly, yews, mountain laurel and andromeda azaleas.

"We've chosen trees according to the location of the existing trees," Mr. Wilson explains, "and we're selecting trees appropriate to certain soils on the site."

Sidewalks, including those to be used for bikeways, and parking stalls have been designed after consultation with various Township departments, according to Mr. Patterson.

Royalty Visits Princeton

The royal family of Monaco visited Princeton Tuesday to look over Princeton University and have lunch with Gov. Brendan T. Byrne at Morven.

Prince Rainier and Prince Albert were said to have met with officials at the University to discuss the young man's possible application to the school. The royal visitors, who also included Princess Grace and Princess Caroline, "just happened to be in Princeton for a social visit," according to a spokesman.

Also attending the luncheon at Morven were former governors Robert B. Meyner and William T. Cahill and their wives, former governor Richard J. Hughes and David "Sonny" Werblin.

VIKING ALOFT AT LAST

2nd Launch Monday. After two frustrating delays in the scheduled launch, the Viking mission to Mars finally lifted off its Florida launching pad Wednesday, August 20, at 5:22 p.m. Princeton University Geology Professor Robert B. Hargraves, a member of the Viking research team, was among the smiling observers.

The 505-million mile flight to Mars is intended to determine if any life is present on that planet. Space officials hope that the spacecraft, now travelling at about 24,000 miles per hour, will make a successful soft landing on the Martian surface in time for the Bicentennial celebration next July.

Equipment in the Viking will perform experiments on the surface of Mars and transmit findings by radio back to earth. Dr. Hargraves will analyze magnetic qualities of Martian surface samples in an attempt to determine the relative amounts of pure iron metal or iron oxides on Mars.

Some iron oxides are not magnetic. Confirmation of their presence on Mars could indicate the presence – at one time or another – of oxygen in the Martian atmosphere.

The launch was first delayed on August 11 when a guidance control valve in the first stage of the Titan Centaur rocket malfunctioned. Several days later the firing was postponed again when a faulty switch drained the power from two batteries in the orbiter half of the spacecraft.

Labor Day Launch. A sister spaceship, the Viking II, now is scheduled to be launched on Labor Day.

That miniaturized laboratory should begin operations on Mars about a month after Viking I, and the two craft should transmit data at least until November of 1976, at which time Mars goes into conjunction with the earth, meaning that radio waves can no longer be received.

LOOP BUSES TO ROLL

On September 10. The two Loop Buses will start rolling again Wednesday, September 10.

Borough Mayor Robert W. Cawley, who made the announcement, said bus schedules, "somewhat different" from before, will be announced next week. The buses will run five days a week, at a 25 cents fare.

"We're trying to simplify the routes to make them easier to understand," he told his press conference.

The buses will be painted blue and white, "Princeton's own colors," the mayor grinned. Blue and white are the colors of Princeton High School.

Buses were pulled off the Loop for the months of July and August to save money. Knocking out those two months, the mayor observed, meant the bus program could stay within its budget.

Sydney Taggart has been appointed bus co-ordinator, Mayor Cawley announced.

RE-CYCLING TO RESUME

In Township in October. Re-cycling, on a do-it-yourself basis, will resume in Princeton Township in early October. At a special meeting Monday night, Township Committee passed an emergency resolution alloting $2,700 for construction of a recycling shed to hold it all.

The shed will be built in the northeast corner of the Princeton Shopping Center, nestled into a grassy bank, painted to match the Center, and surrounded by shrubs in planters.

Re-cyclers may take newspapers, cans and bottles of all colors to the shed, but not magazines. Dye in magazines makes them unusable, and Committee member Margaret Broadwater says research is under way to find out what effect comic strips and Sunday magazine sections may have.

The walk-in, one-story shed will be ten feet wide and 40 feet long, with four bins for collections. Two bins will be for newspapers, either bundled or placed in supermarket shopping bags; one bin will be for unsorted cans, anything from beer or beans; one will be for sorted glass, with labeled places for green, clear and brown.

The shed will be open every day, but will be locked at night. Details on hours will be announced before Opening Day.

W.J. Shinn, the Township zoning officer, designed the structure and Henry Rauscher, chief of the survey party for the Township, did the drawings. Township employees will do the building. Michael Lancaster of Trenton, will be the re-cycling man. He was recommended by East Windsor, West Windsor and Hopewell Township, and will pick up Princeton Township re-cycling two or three times a week on his regular rounds.

In other business Monday, Committee named Township Engineer Joseph Hodak the agent to file for Federal assistance under the Disaster Relief Act.

MAN ASSAULTED, ROBBED

At Laundromat. A Hightstown man was assaulted and robbed early Saturday morning while he was washing his clothes at the Laundromat in the Princeton Shopping Center.

John Bartholomew, 61 Deerfield Drive, was taken by Sgt. Michael Kopliner to Princeton Medical Center where he was treated for contusions and released. Police said that he had been punched about the face and kicked by four young men who accosted him as he stepped outside the laundromat for a breath of fresh air at 1:45 in the morning.

Thirty dollars were taken from his wallet which was

Hypertension means high blood pressure, or pressure which is above normal. Blood pressure varies with individuals, and with individuals at different times. Emotions such as fear, anger, and worry cause blood vessels to constrict, and this increases the blood pressure. Hypertension is more frequent among the middle aged, but it may occur at any age, even in babies. The average age of its onset is in the thirties. It is important to be tested for high blood pressure regularly by your physician.

Police said that Mr. Bartholomew was able to give a good description of the suspects to Ptl. Jerry Offredo who investigated. That information and a subsequent investigation by Det. Samuel Bianco led to the arrest of one of those allegedly involved.

Charged with robbery is Robertson Nathan, 19, of 32 Witherspoon Lane. He was arraigned before Borough Judge Philip Carchman on Monday and released in his own recognizance pending a probable cause hearing in Township Court September 17. Det. Bianco is continuing the investigation.

Second Charge. Nathan is also in trouble with the Borough police who have charged him with the assault and battery and attempted larceny of a 24-year old Township resident. He is scheduled to appear in Borough court September 3.

Nathan is allegedly one of three men who attacked the Township resident while he was walking on Moran Avenue around 10:45 p.m. The victim, police said, was punched about the face and head and knocked to the ground. His pockets were rifled by his assailants but police report the victim had no money. He did not require medical treatment.

From a description of the suspects and the license number of their car, Ptl. John Holcombe arrested Nathan. Chief Michael Carnevale reported that a second youth who will be charged with the same offenses is a 17-year old Township resident.

The three men were accompanied by two women, police said.

3 HOMES ENTERED

In Township. Township police report the entry of three homes last week and the Unitarian Church.

A television set was taken from the living room of the home of Katherine Book, 74 Gallup Road. The theft, reported by a housesitter, took place, police said, between 10 and 11 Monday night. It is not known how the intruder got inside.

An AM-FM stereo was stolen from the home of John O'Donoghue, 61 Lovers Lane.

A pane of glass was broken to reach in and unlock the front door, police said. Ptl. James Vandermark investigated.

The home of Theodore Holst, 528 Mercer Road, was entered and partially ransacked last week but police said that nothing was reported missing. A window pane in a door was broken to gain entry.

A stereo receiver and two small speakers valued at $100 were stolen between 3:25 Saturday afternoon and 1:10 Sunday morning from the Unitarian Church, Cherry Hill Road.

The equipment was owned by James Collins of Jamesburg. Police report the thief entered the church through an unlocked main entrance. Ptl. Renn Kaminski investigated.

Borough police report that a $200 portable color TV set and an amplifier, valued at $75, were taken from an apartment last week on lower Witherspoon Street.

Police said that the owner had been away on vacation when a Witherspoon Street resident called to report

Labor Day's
A funny one!

This Tuesday, the day after Labor Day, will mark the unofficial end of the wettest summer ever recorded around here, and the Weather Man hopes to be able to produce a pleasant weekend to make up for all the rain over the past couple of months. This short hot spell should be broken by cooler weather on Wednesday and Thursday, with showers likely Friday. The outlook for the weekend is mostly good, but fair and pleasant weather for three consecutive days may be too much to hope for

33 TAPES TAKEN

From Parked Car. Thirty-three stereo tapes and two sets of speakers, valued at $300, were stolen last week from a car parked in the Tulane West lot.

Police said that the car, owned by a West Windsor resident, had been broken into.

A grey metal tool box containing a set of metric wrenches valued at $50 was stolen Thursday afternoon from a foreign car parked in the engineering quad lot off Olden Street. They were owned by a Lawrence Township resident.

A right rear window was smashed to remove a blue suitcase from a car parked last week in the Palmer Square lot next to the Playhouse.

Inside the suitcase were textbooks, scientific notes and photographs which were valuable to the owner, a professor working at the Forrestal Research Center. The suitcase was later found—intact-- and returned to the owner.

A 15-year old Borough juvenile has been arrested in connection with the theft and charged with breaking and entering and larceny by Borough juvenile officer Douglas Watson. Police report that a parking lot attendent saw youths break the car's window.

Wallet Theft. Alma L. MacDonald of Sycamore Lane, Skillman, lost $47 in cash Thursday morning when, in conducting business at the Professional Building, 33 State Road, she left her wallet on a countertop and neglected to return it to her pocketbook. She was unable to locate it when she returned. Police reported her total loss at $57.

Richard L. Cruser, 132 Alexander Street, reported the theft over the weekend of a white clay pot containing philodendron plants from his porch. He valued the plants and pot at $55.

BIKER, JOGGER COLLIDE

On Western Way. A bicyclist and a jogger collided late last Wednesday evening on Western Way between Broadmead and S. Harrison, bringing injury to both.

The cyclist, Tang Kwokkwong, 22, was going east on Western Way; the jogger, Diana Chen, 23, was going west. Police listed the address of both as 50 Western Way. They collided between two illuminated lamp posts.

Both were treated at Princeton Medical Center. Mr. Kwokkwong sustained a minor laceration but police report that Ms. Chen was incapacitated by the mishap.

There were no charges by Ptl. Robert Nielsen. He noted in his report that the cyclist had no headlight and Ms. Chen was not jogging on the sidewalk.

Three-Car Collision. Three cars collided early Saturday afternoon on North Harrison Street opposite a Princeton Shopping Center exit. Four persons were injured.

According to police, a car driven by Jenny B. Whyte, 48, of New York City, had stopped in the center median of Harrison. She was waved across by an unidentified car stopped in the left lane which blocked her view.

As the Whyte car proceeded across the intersection, it was struck by a car coming south on Harrison operated by Stephen Calhoun, 24, Route 518, Skillman. The impact forced the Whyte car into a car operated by Janet Sustaining minor injuries were Mrs. Whyte; Alexander Whyte, 10, and Barbara Roman, 18, a passenger in the Calhoun car. More seriously injured was Huntley Funsten, 11, a passenger in the Whyte car, who sustained facial injuries.

POLICE CHARGE PAIR

In Mirror Theft. Two Princeton youths, 16 and 18, have been charged with possession of stolen property, follnwing the recovery by police last week of a $60 decorative mirror stolen from the Rug and Furniture Mart and Ivy Manor Showrooms in the Princeton Shopping Center.

Police became involved after someone stopped Ptl. James Vandermark and told him he had seen two young men hiding what appeared to be some kind of mirror in bushes near Opinion Research Corp. on Terhune Road.

Police recovered the mirror, and some 20 minutes later, Ptl. Vandermark observed two young men who fit the description of the suspects.

HITCHHIKER CHARGED

With Drug Possession. A 21-year old Mount Arlington resident has been charged by Township police with possession of narcotics and narcotic paraphernalia.

James Coloditch was later released on his own recognizance, pending his appearance in Township court. He was arrested on Route 206 last week by Ptl. Anthony Gaylord while hitchhiking near Cherry Hill Road.

As Ptl. Gaylord approached to make a routine check, Coloditch allegedly tried to hide some articles in his waistband. Police report they uncovered marijuana and hashish in his possession and a pipe to smoke the drugs.

FOUR ARE FINED

In Borough Court. Four Princeton area residents were fined Monday by Judge Philip Carchman in Borough traffic court.

Lida Jimenez, 93 Woods Road, Belle Mead, and Eric Hollander, 104 Poe Road, paid $36 and $15 for speeding. Careless driving cost Elizabeth Hutson, 613 Snowden Lane, $25, while Richard Warfield, 19 Longview Drive, was fined $10 for no license or registration in possession.

In Borough criminal court last week, Larry Miller, 20, 7 Lytle Street, received two sentences of 20 days and one year probation. Miller had been charged by Borough police with larceny under $200 and possession of stolen property.

In Township court last week, Judge Carchman fined Albert J. Liberatore, Wertsville Road, Skillman, $210 for driving while on a revoked list.

David L. Harris, Millstone Road, Cranbury, charged with speeding 46 in a 15-mile zone in the Princeton Shopping Center, was fined $45 and ordered to undergo a re-examination. Mildred D. Tolarick, 109 Washington Street, Rocky Hill, paid $35 for leaving the scene of an accident.

GIRL IS ARRESTED

For Shoplifting. A 16-year old Township girl was arrested last week in Bamberger's in the Princeton Shopping Center, where she allegedly shoplifted sportswear and hoisery valued at $41.

Apprehended by a Bamberger's security officer, the girl was turned over to Township juvenile officer Sgt. Anthony Pinelli for processing.

MAN EXPOSES HIMSELF

To 13-Year Old Girl. A man driving an old white car pulled up to a 13-year old girl walking on Beech Hill Circle Saturday afternoon and called out for directions. When the girl approached, police said, he exposed himself and drove off.

He was described as white, 25 to 30, with dirty blonde hair and a slight beard. Ptl. David Cromwell investigated. Beech Hill Road is located in the northeast section of the Township.

ON SCHOOL AGENDA....

Building Sale, Salaries. The vacant Stony Brook building on Stockton Street that belongs to the Princeton schools may be sold before long. A public sale was advertised for last Tuesday, after several bidders expressed an interest, and a preliminary report is expected at the next meeting of the school board.

The meeting will be held next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Community Park School. It's called a "summer meeting" to distinguish it from the regular September meeting on Tuesday, September 30.

The board will act on the salary agreement with the PRAA-- the Princeton Regional Administrators' Association-- and with the cafeteria workers.

Also, the board will take formal action to approve several appointments, including that of William Humes as acting assistant principal of John Witherspoon Middle School, replacing Philip Cobb, who will be named acting principal, and that of Estelle Browne, who will be acting director of staff services.

Contracts for professional services will also be executed. Among these are contracts with Gerald L. Dorf as labor negotiator and James J. McLaughlin, who is handling the civil rights suit of Virginia Euell and Constance Vieland. Smith, Cook, Lambert, Knipe and Miller will be named board attorneys.

A bid for $10,295 for installing a lawn sprinkler system in the soccer and field-hockey fields at Princeton High School, will be considered. A sprinkler system, long-range, is said to be cheaper than maintaining and renovating playing fields.

POSTPONED....

Euell-Vieland Conciliation. The conciliation conference in the civil rights case of Virginia Euell and Constance Vieland has been re-scheduled for Friday, September 12. It was originally set for August 22.

Miss Euell and Dr. Vieland have taken the Princeton Regional Board of Education to the state's Division of Civil Rights, charging both sex and race discrimination in the board's refusal to name Miss Tech Hifi Has the Buying Power of 46 Stores. That's a Sure Sign of Low Prices.

Tech Hifi buys more components from the audio manufacturers in one week than most dealers buy in a whole year.

So there's rarely a question about who's going to get the best deal.

That's why you'll get the best deal at Tech Hifi.

Tech's quality music systems start as low as $199.95. And each and every one of our systems is backed by Tech Hifi's fourteen Customer Satisfaction Guarantees. Important guarantees like a seven-day money-back guarantee, ninety-day 100% trade-in and a one-year speaker trial.

This week's recommended system systems will give you an idea of the great deals that are waiting for you at Tech Hifi right now. Check out the system shown below.

For the very affordable price of $349.95, the system features Centura IVa two-way loudspeakers. These are the most efficient acoustic-suspension speakers we know of. So you get the deep, accurate bass response of a sealed system, with volume potential that approaches that of more efficient bass reflex (ducted) speakers.

The am/fm stereo receiver is Pioneer's Sound Project 300. It has the look and feel of much more expensive units - and performance that comes amazingly close to bigger receivers under most listening conditions. The Pioneer's FET-equipped tuner section provides crystal-clear FM reception, even if you live in a poor reception area!

The turntable is the amazing Philips GA 427. What's amazing about it, are all the high performance features it provides. These include be belt-drive, a 24-pole synchronous motor, free-floating suspension and auto-return. It comes complete with a deluxe base and dustcover and an ADC 90Q induced-magnetic cartridge. Purchase this superb system this week, and you'll save $130 off the combined regular prices of the components!

This Week: $349.95

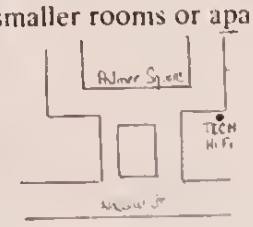
Centura PIONEER Philips

And for the even more affordable price of only $199.95, you can own a great high fidelity system with Alpha 203 two-way, acoustic suspension loudspeakers. They're just the right size for smaller rooms or apartments, although they'll fill even relatively large areas with their great sound.



The Concord CR50 am/fm stereo receiver combines ample power for the Alpha 203's with sharp FM reception and a full array of control facilities.

The BSR 2260X automatic turntable completes the system. It features a manual cueing lever that protects your records from abuse and an anti-skate device that keeps the stylus centered in the grooves where it belongs. The turntable comes complete with a base, dustcover and a Shure magnetic cartridge.

At a sale price of $199.95, you save $105 off the regular combined prices of these components!

HOPEWELL GIRL KILLED

Struck by Car. A 14-year-old Hopewell girl died August 19 in the Princeton Medical Center about an hour after she was struck by a car while walking along Carter Road in Hopewell Township. Her father died five years ago in an automobile accident on the same stretch of roadway.

Hopewell Township police said that Lorene Ramsze, of Princeton Road, Hopewell Township, was walking north on Carter Road at about 9:45 p.m. when she was struck by a car, also traveling north, driven by Katherine N. Guinness, 50, of Mount Church Road, Hopewell Township. Police said the victim was walking on the right hand side of the road.

A police investigation is continuing to determine how the girl came into the path of the automobile. No charges have been filed against the driver.

Hopewell Patrolman Bruce Carnall and Hopewell Valley Rescue Squad member Thomas Cooper treated the victim enroute to the hospital, where she died.

The accident occurred in a heavily wooded section about one-half mile north of the intersection of Crusher Road and Carter Road. The road at this point has no street lights. Further north Carter Road turns into Princeton Road, where the victim lived.

Father's Death. In 1970 Lorene's father, John D. Ramsze, died when the car he was driving had a tire blow out on Princeton Road. He crashed head-on into another car and both drivers were killed.

Surviving are Lorene's mother, Mrs. Virginia A. Ramsze; a sister, Margaret A., at home; two brothers, Mathew D. and David A., both at home; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Tillie Ramsze of Trenton; and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mildred Morrow of Fairless Hills, Pa.

Services were held in Trenton with the Rev. Burt Parry, assistant pastor of the Hopewell Presbyterian Church, officiating. Cremation followed in the Ewing Crematorium. Contributions may be made to the Hopewell Presbyterian Church.

Concern for Common Voter.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

With so much talk about the candor and credibility that most elected officials and candidates running for office lack these days, I would like to refute that argument by saying that there are still many officials and candidates who have shown signs of care and concern for the common voter.

One such example is Lucy Mackenzie, the Democratic candidate for State Assembly in our district, who has been conducting a door to door campaign to meet and converse with the regular voters in this area.

Her presence at my door last week praves to me that there are still many candidates who try to seek office by means of the common citizens and not through untrustworthy ways. I applaud Lucy Mackenzie for her forthright methods of campaigning.

KENNETH REID
430 Ewing Street

Apathy High on Schools.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Consideration of Princeton's approaching crisis in public affairs must begin with the fact that there appears to be more apathy per capita in Princeton than elsewhere in New Jersey. It is bad elsewhere, but not quite so bad as it is in Princeton.

The situation is given point by the effects which have resulted from almost universal disregard of what is taking place in the public schools. Briefly, there has been a transformation that has substituted the care and well-being of school employees for the purpose and results of a public school system supposedly for the benefit of the children in the community.

There are so many things wrong about the schools and so much has been carried to excess that drastic measures are long overdue. The question is whether those directly responsible will do what is necessary. On the other hand, if they do not, it will be necessary to consider what countervailing action must be taken.

If it comes to such a pass, there is now a precedent that seems worthy of attention. In Bergenfield, New Jersey, a lawsuit was instituted to establish the requirement that the budget of the community, including the salaries and the salary increases for municipal employees, should be subject to a public referendum. According to press reports, a Superior Court judge, on July 24, ruled that such action was in order and stipulated that the referendum should take place at the time of the November election.

This, of course, is only one way in which a situation that is so badly out of line can be approached. There are others. However, the best way is for the people who are in the middle of the existing situation to start retracing their steps in the direction of the bounds of reason.

Where There's Smoke...

...there isn't always fire. Thursday afternoon firemen responded to the home of Felix Gilbert, 266 Mercer Road where smoke was seen coming out of a plumbing vent pipe on the roof.

But it wasn't smoke from a fire. Lt. Michael Lisi of the Township police explained that an engineering firm is checking the sewer system by pumping smoke into the lines to determine leakage or illegal hookups. He said the Gilbert home was unoccupied at the time.

Four pieces of equipment responded to the 3:46 alarm, three of which were turned back as they arrived when it was determined there was no fire.

SEN. WILLIAMS REPORTS

On Energy Conservation. At a time when the nation is struggling to achieve energy self-sufficiency, one simple way to save energy would be to install electric meters in individual apartments instead of using master meters for entire apartment buildings.

A professional study and the experience of utility companies show that such a switch could result in an energy savings in apartment houses of anywhere from 15 to 40 percent. One study estimates that 19 million barrels of oil per year could be saved in this manner.

In some cities up to 75 percent of the apartment buildings are using a master meter, or a single measuring device, to measure electricity for all apartments within the building. The energy cost is evenly districuted among the tenants and passed along in their rent, rather than each tenant paying only for his own electricity consumption.

In such buildings the tenant

THREE CENTURIES OF PAINTINGS: A harvest of American paintings, gathered under the direction of the Princeton Historical Society as part of a bicentennial inventory, includes "Pont Aven," by Childe Hassam, shown here. Paintings, which which number over 600, were assembled from homes in the Princeton area and span the years from 1762 to the 1930s. From the group, 65 have been selected for an exhibition. "American Paintings: A Gathering from Three Centuries," to be on view at the Squibb Gallery this fall (Oct. 5-31). Gillett Griffin of Princeton (left) owner of the Hassam, discusses it with Ellwood Parry, assistant professor of art history at Columbia.

often comes to regard the landlord as the one paying the utility bills and to believe that his own consumption will not affect his monthly rent bill. The financial restraint on extravagant consumption is for all practical purposes removed. Since the tenant sees no direct and immediate relationship between his electricity consumption and the price of his rent, he has no financial incentive to conserve energy.

What results is considerable and unnecessary waste of valuable energy resources at a time when our nation is struggling to conserve supplies and become energy self-sufficient.

Legislation Introduced. Legislation I recently introduced would put a halt to the waste caused by master electrical meters by prohibiting or restricting their use in new apartment buildings. Master meters in existing buildings would be replaced by individual meters to the extent practicable.

This measure would provide significant energy savings, particularly in our urban and suburban areas where brownouts and electrical shortages are a growing threat.

One large New Jersey power company estimates that master-metered apartment buildings consume about 35 percent more electricity than individual metered buildings. And officials of the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power and the Potomac Electric Power Company in Washington have estimated – conservatively – that 15 percent less energy is used in apartments that convert to individual meters.

The Senate has already passed legislation establishing fuel efficiency standards for automobiles and incentives to conserve energy in industry and in building construction, but we must find additional ways to conserve this precious resource.

There is substantial evidence of the grossly inefficient and wasteful nature of master electrical meters in apartment houses. The use of the individual meter, which would inform and charge for electrical consumption to each tenant directly, would be a far-reaching, practical, and effective alternative.

You only panel a wall once!

—says Wally Bruner, star of the popular do-it-yourself TV show "Wally's Workshop."

Come in...let us help you plan to do it right.

You can easily put up paneling that you will enjoy for years. Here's all it takes:

1 Measure walls, mark in rough sketch showing position of windows, etc. Note what walls are made of.

2 Bring us the sketch, we'll tell you how many 4x8 panels you need and how to apply them.

3 Order the U.S. Plywood paneling you like best. We have a wide choice in all price ranges.

4 Follow our easy instructions and the job will go quickly. You probably have all the tools you need. If not, we can supply any you're missing.

5 Invite the crowd over for an evening of fun and compliments.

This is what you know about your lawn: It should have green grass.

This is what you don't know:

Grubs, chinch bugs, sod webworms can attack your lawn, and in one season, turn it brown and patchy.

We'll eliminate your lawn's present problems and set up a series of scheduled treatments designed to keep your grounds green.

We'll do all the time consuming back-breaking work and GUARANTEE* you a greener more beautiful lawn for just about the price you'd pay for the materials alone.

ESTIMATE THE SIZE OF YOUR LAWN

How much have you spent on materials and lawn equipment rentals? You'll find that when you compare your cost with our estimated square foot service price, you can't beat our work saving LAWN KING program.

JOHNSON NAMED HEAD OF RCA's Japan Lab.

Appointment of Edward O. Johnson as director of RCA Research Laboratories in Tokyo has been announced by Dr. Jan A. Rajchman, Vice President of the RCA subsidiary.

Located on the outskirts of Tokyo, RCA Research Laboratories was established in 1961 to foster closer relations between the Japanese and American scientific communities. With the exception of the director, all laboratory employees are Japanese. Their research covers the physical properties of materials as well as the synthesis of new materials and their application to electronic devices, Dr. Rajchman stated.

Mr. Johnson, of 231 Snowden Lane, is replacing Dr. Bernard Hershenov, Director of the Japanese Laboratories since 1972. An RCA employee since receiving a B.S. degree in electrical engineering from Pratt Institute in 1948, Mr. Johnson has taken graduate courses at Princeton University and also studied for a year at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology.

He started work for RCA as a member of the technical staff of RCA Laboratories in Princeton. In 1959, he was named manager, advanced development, for the RCA Semiconductor Division and served as division chief engineer from 1960 to 1964. He was appointed manager of technical programs for RCA Electronic Components in 1964 and two years later was named manager, RCA Solid State Optoelectronic Products.

He was manager, technical liaison, for RCA International Licensing from 1972 to May of this year when he was appointed a staff scientist at RCA Laboratories.

Mr. Johnson, known for his work on gaseous discharges and semiconductor devices, is a fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and has been active on a number of IEEE committees and professional groups. He is a member of Sigma Xi, Eta Kappa Nu, and Tau Beta Pi, and has received 20 U.S. Patents and published more than 30 technical papers.

MORE TIME PROVIDED

To Submit Sketches for Murals. Stuart Bellows, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Environmental Improvement Committee, has announced an extension of time for submission of sketches for a mural to be painted on the Community Liquors warehouse building.

To coincide with long-range beautification plans, the Chamber has invited interested artists to prepare suitable rendering for possible painting on both sides of this building in the parking lot off Witherspoon Street.

Specifications may be obtained at the Chamber office, 44 Nassau Street, and sketches may be left there. A panel of judges will select the art work they feel most appropriate for this project. For more information, call Ellen Hodges at 921-7676.

FORAN TO SPEAK

At Chamber Luncheon. Guest speaker at the Princeton Chamber of Commerce meeting next Wednesday will be Assemblyman Walter E. Foran, who will discuss Responsible Fiscal Management.

Assemblyman Foran is Minority Whip and represents the 14th voting district which includes most of Hunterdon County and parts of Middlesex, Morris and Mercer Counties, including Princeton.

The public is invited to attend this meeting and should make reservations in advance by calling the Chamber office at 921-7676. The noon luncheon will be held at Nassau Inn at $5 per person.

RATES ARE RAISED

For Unemployment Insurance. Benefit rates for 1976 for workmen's compensation, unemployment insurance, temporary disability insurance and the new unemployment insurance taxable wage base have been announced by Joseph A. Hoffman, Commissioner of the N.J. Department of Labor and Industry.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for unemployment insurance and State Plan temporary disability insurance has been set at $96 for 1976. This new rate, a $6 increase over this year's maximum, will be effective to all new unemployment insurance benefit years and all periods of disability which begin on or after January 1, 1976, Commissioner Hoffman stated.

The new maximum weekly benefit rate for workmen's compensation, temporary disability, permanent total disability and death will be $128 per week effective January 1, 1976. This represents an additional $9 over 1975 for claimants.

GUIDE FOR APARTMENT SEEKERS

It's the season for new leases, new tenants, new landlords, and TOWN TOPICS is reprinting a column on New Jersey's rent security deposit law prepared by the Mercer County Division of Consumer Affairs.

Princeton Borough has a rent-control -- "rent-levelling," it's called -- ordinance. If you want information about it, you can call 921-7551 on Tuesdays and Thursdays between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. The rent-levelling staff member is Mrs. Lucy Graves.

WHAT IS A RENT SECURITY DEPOSIT?

A Rent Security Deposit is an amount of money, or other form of security which you deposit when you want to rent a residential unit, with the person who owns or controls the rental unit.

A Rent Security Deposit is held in trust for you, and continues to be your property unless it is used according to the terms of the lease. If not so used, it must be returned to you, with interest.

Your deposit may not be mingled with the funds of the person receiving it, nor does it become an asset of that person.

WHY IS A RENT SECURITY DEPOSIT NECESSARY?

The Security Deposit is primarily to protect the owner of the rental property against:

1. Unpaid rent loss.
2. Damage to the premises by the tenant.

WHEN MAY A SECURITY DEPOSIT BE REQUIRED?

On all residential rental premises, except when owner-occupied with no more than two rental units.

HOW MUCH SECURITY DEPOSIT MAY BE REQUIRED?

The Deposit may not exceed 1½ months rent.

HOW MUST A SECURITY DEPOSIT BE HANDLED?

1. It must be deposited in a banking institution or savings and loan association, insured by an agency of the Federal Government, in an account bearing interest at the rate currently paid by such institutions on time or savings deposits.

2. The person receiving the Deposit must, within 30 days thereafter, notify you of the name and address of the banking institution where the money is held and the amount of the deposit.

If the person receiving the Security Deposit fails to notify you of the name and address of the banking institution within 30 days after receipt of the Security Deposit, you may give written notice to the person holding the Deposit that the money is to be applied to rent payments due, or to become due. You then will have no further Security Deposit obligation for the term of your lease, and the person receiving the Security money cannot make a further demand for a Security Deposit from you.

WHO GETS THE INTEREST EARNED?

One percent per annum of the interest rate shall belong to the holder of the Security Deposit, in lieu of all administrative and custodial expenses, and the remaining interest earned is yours, as a tenant. If the current interest rate were 4 percent, the custodian may keep 1 percent, and you get 3 percent.

WHAT HAPPENS TO SECURITY DEPOSIT AND INTEREST WHEN LEASE EXPIRES?

1. If lease is being renewed your Security Deposit may remain on deposit, but your portion of the interest must be either paid to you or credited to your rent.

2. If lease is not being renewed Security Deposit and your portion of the interest must be returned to you by personal delivery or certified mail within 30 days, minus any charges expended in accordance with the terms of the lease. Any such expenditures shall be itemized and you are entitled to be notified thereof by certified mail.

If you have to go to court for the return of such moneys, the court finding in your favor, shall award recovery of double the amount of said moneys, and costs.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN THE PROPERTY OWNERSHIP CHANGES DURING THE TERM OF A LEASE?

The law establishes three alternative procedures which must be followed where a landlord sells, conveys, or assigns property or is subject of a foreclosure action.

CAN RIGHTS BE WAIVED?

"Any provision of such a contract, lease, or agreement whereby a person who so deposits or advances money waives any provision of this act, is absolutely void." In other words, "No."

If you have a consumer problem relating to a Rent Security Deposit, you can write the Mercer County Division of Consumer Affairs, 640 South Broad Street in Trenton or call 989-8000 x615.

Q. Is any 1975 car actually worth the money?

If value is a question of dollars and sense, the Audi 100LS is unquestionably the answer. Because the Germans had one thing in mind when they created the Audi: a fine machine at a reasonable price.

You won't find flash or frills, you'll find a quiet understated elegance: a full-sized car that comfortably carries five, the luxury of legroom and headroom of some cars twice the price, orthopedically-designed reclining seats.

And you'll find superb engineering. To front-wheel drive, rack-and-pinion steering and independent front suspension, we've added outboard vented disc brakes for less possibility of fade. We've added negative steering-roll radius to enable the Audi to self-correct in a front-wheel blowout and help maintain directional stability. And we've added fuel injection for easier starts, smoother acceleration and better gas mileage. Now the Audi gets 28 miles to the gallon* on the highway.

At $5845, it's exactly what it was created to be: a fine machine at a reasonable price. There's simply no question about it.

The acreage is subdividable into at least four extra building lots aside from the main estate. Call us today and we'll show you one of our areas loveliest properties. $235,000

Too Good to Keep Under Cover

Some houses have elegance written all over them. Sometimes its the proportions, sometimes its the setting, and sometimes its the precise detail of the style. In this case it's all three. Inside, the great front to back living room, elegant formal dining room, and rustic family room or library with raised hearth are set in a highly workable arrangement of formal and casual living areas. Upstairs, there is an airy master bedroom suite with private bath as well as three other comfortable bedrooms. A wonderful house for a dinner party in a location near the country club that's hard to beat $78,500

In Montgomery Township on the Way to Griggstown

. . . there's a neat spacious home just right for you in one of Montgomery Township's nicest neighborhoods. Inside, it has plush wall to wall carpeting in the living room and dining room, a large convenient eat-in-kitchen, and three comfortable bedrooms and two full baths upstairs. Downstairs, there is a huge family room with beamed ceiling and massive stone fireplace, and a separate study or guest bedroom and powder room. These and many other fine features make it a very good buy at $61,500

Our Newest Williamsburg Cape on the Mountain

In Elm Ridge Park West it would sell for much more but our builder is producing the same fine quality home for thirty thousand dollars less. This four bedroom Cape Cod with an airy master suite downstairs has an exceptional flowing floorplan, two fireplaces, and just the right detailed touches that will make you feel as though you're living in an older established home rather than a new house. See it through the construction phase and move in this fall for only $75,900

In the Bedens Brook Area

Just a few minutes from downtown Princeton yet hidden away in a private country setting is a fantastic California ranch with a creatively designed floorplan. At one end of this lovely home is a heated indoor swimming pool with flagstone patio and sauna, while at the other is a delightful master suite that can be cordoned off for either long-term guests, or an in-law arrangement. Both the huge flagstone library-study and the family room have their own fireplace while the kitchen and living room have a view of the pool. Just Moved to Town? Here's a Handy Guide

HUB OF THE UNIVERSE? Cars, buses, trucks, pedestrians, cyclists—all at one time or another, and sometimes all at once—meet at the corner of Nassau and Witherspoon Streets. Town and Gown (that's the campus, behind the trees) meet here, too.

Just moved to town? Student or housewife, commuter or programmer, renter or buyer, there are some things you'll want to know about your new home, the town (pop. 25,000) called Princeton.

Where do I live? First of all, find out which "Princeton" you live in, because there are two: Borough and Township. Two mayors, two governing bodies, two police departments, two tax-collectors, two boards of health. But one single school system and one single (Volunteer) fire department. The county you live in is Mercer.

Help, police! In the Borough, call 924-4141. In the Township, 921-2100.

Fire! Call the police number.

Ambulance! Call 924-3338.

I've Got this dog.... If you're in the Borough, you must keep your dog restrained (leash or fence) 24 hours a day. Township dog-owners must keep dogs under control (voice control is accepted) from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. At night, they can run.

I've Got this Landlord.... The Borough has a rent-levelling ordinance. The office in Borough Hall is open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. The telephone is 921-7551, and the official is Mrs. Graves. The Township, with fewer apartments, doesn't have a rent ordinance.

Both Borough and Township have ordinances governing the state of your apartment or rented house. Call either Board of Health if you think you have a legitimate complaint.

I'd like to go swimming. The municipal Community Park pool off Witherspoon Street will be open through Sunday, September 7.

What about winter? If you're a winter swimmer, you can join the YM-YWCA and swim in the pool there.

Where can I get a Princeton map? Hinkson's, 82 Nassau, or Center Stationers in the Princeton Shopping Center, North Harrison Street.

Is traffic always this bad? Not quite. This Saturday is the Giants-Steelers game in Palmer Stadium. Happens every Labor Day weekend. But when Princeton University has a home game, time your Saturday errands uptown to avoid pre-and-post-game traffic. (Yes, people say "uptown" to mean the Nassau-Witherspoon-Vandeventer-Moore business section. It's also called the "CBD", for Central Business District.)

Parking....? The Borough has meters, the Township does not. You can park overnight on Township streets, you cannot on Borough Streets.

If your meter runs out, you'll get a $4 parking ticket. Borough police are efficient and absolutely ruthless. Not even George Washington – who came up Washington Road on his way to work – could talk Borough police out of an overtime ticket. You can park free after 6 p.m.

How do I get to New York? If you're a commuter, you know already. If you want to spend the day "in town" — some people say that – you can take the bus for the 90-minute ride. Bus leaves at five minutes after the hour and twenty-five minutes of the hour from the campus side of Nassau Street at Witherspoon, across from the Suburban Transit station on the Nassau-Witherspoon corner. Round trip is $4.50. Buses to New York also leave from the Princeton Shopping Center at twenty-five minutes after the hour – only once an hour from this stop.

We just moved – what a mess! Community-wide Clean-up Week will rescue you. Watch newspapers for October date.

Why are my kids home? It's only Wednesday. Public schools close at 1:30 on a series of Wednesdays to give teachers and staff time for staff-development programs. The first "Wednesday" will be October 8, and the program will continue October 15, 22 and 29 in that first series.

How do you make friends? If you're a woman, join the YWCA's Newcomers Club. If you're a married man, ask your wife to join. If you're a Senior Citizen (female) join the YWCA's Friday Club. Senior Citizens, male and female, can join the American Association of Retired Persons. Watch newspaper Club News for dates of the monthly AARP meeting.

If you're young and single, good luck. No eating-drinking place in town caters to the younger crowd. The Alchemist and Barrister (28 Witherspoon) has live entertainment, usually Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. The upstairs lounge at the Rusty Scupper (Alexander Street) has jazz and folk Wed.-through-Sat. from 9 a.m. to 1. No dancing, but sometimes a very attractive crowd.

Peacock Alley, in the Peacock Inn on Bayard Lane just off Nassau, attracts college-age people. It's open from 8 until midnight. The Pink Elephant (252 Nassau) has a good jukebox, an intimate lounge and a friendly management that doesn't mind if you do a turn in the middle of the room. Goodtime Charley's, in Kingston (east on Route 27, which is a continuation of Nassau Street) has a lot of live entertainment, from rock to folk. Charley's Brother, on Route 518 in Hopewell, has a young clientele and a big dance floor.

The County Line Inn, on Route 206, has dance music Fridays and Saturdays and so does the Brookside Inn, Routes 31 and 518, north of Hopewell.

If none of this works, remember what Mom always used to say: "Why not go to church and meet some nice young people that way?"

You're Invited (at $25) to a Masked Ball For the Benefit of McCarter's Treasury

"SPEAK LOW, IF YOU SPEAK LOVE:" Almost anything can be said from behind a mask, as these lovers from "Much Ado About Nothing" will confirm. James Wageman chose this engraving from a long-ago edition of Shakespeare's comedy to illustrate the invitation he has designed for McCarter Theatre's Masked Ball.

A masked ball --- of all festivities the most imbued with a sense of theatre — will be held Friday, October 3 to raise money for McCarter Theatre.

The Ball will be held in Princeton University's Jadwin Cage under the sponsorship of the McCarter Associates, the theatre's helping auxiliary.

Peter Duchin will provide dancing music, Peter Vielbig will cater the supper, and what McCarter, with stars in its eyes, calls a "galaxy" of famous people will lend their support and possibly attend, as well.

Tickets are $25 per person. Invitations are about to be mailed to 11,000 people throughout New Jersey and contiguous states. If you aren't on the list and want to attend the Ball, just call McCarter (921-8370) and an invitation will be mailed to you.

"Because McCarter is a theatre for everyone, this is a party for everyone. It will not be an elitist affair," says Mrs. Thomas H. Paine, chairman of McCarter Associates.

Before the Ball, members of the committee planning the event will be hosts at private cocktail parties. The Associates plan to invite every person who attends the Ball to one of these parties.

"I have found from experience," Mrs. Paine says,

News Of The THEATRES

"that people feel more welcome, and are more inclined to attend if they've been invited to a cocktail party beforehand."

Goat: 1000 Guests. The Associates' goal is 1,000 guests. But Jadwin is big enough to accommodate a lot more than that, and the Associates hope that a lot more than that will buy tickets.

The dollar goal is a modest $10,000. Financially-pressed McCarter will lose two big grants at the end of the 1975-76 season – Rockefeller money and Mellon money – and Ball procedes will help fill the cash box.

Included in that "galaxy" of supporters is an honorary committee consisting of Alvin Ailey, Elizabeth Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Backus, Clive Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Benchley, Mme. Alicia de Larrocha, Jose Ferrer, Clark Gesner.

Also Eileen Heckart, Gilbert V. Hemsley, Michael Kahn, Joshua Logan, Milton Lyon, Marcel Marceau, Senator Anne Martindell, Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Ophuls, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Peck, Joshua Rifkin, Dr. and Mrs. Ray E. Robinson, Wayne Rogers, Professor Daniel Seltzer, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Scheide, James Stewart and Maria Tucci. President William G. Bowen of Princeton University and Mrs. Bowen are honorary chairmen.

Mrs. Paine's committee considered many ideas before deciding on a Masked Ball. A costume ball, an evening with a famous instrumentalist, a Viennese night, and so on.

At first, the committee thought of Drumthwacket, but staging complications and the lack of facilities there eliminated that location.

"Jadwin is not without problems," Mrs. Paine concedes, "It is difficult to light and decorate such a vast area, but I've been in contact with several experts in set-design and lighting, and we believe a simple, but elegant, transformation can be achieved with minimum cost. But no one should expect a complete transformation of the Cage – it would simply be too expensive."

Incidentally, a masked ball isn't a costume ball. All you need is a mask – anything from a goalie's mask to something ceremonial from Africa to an amusing little thing with sequins.

"At this time," McCarter has informed the press, "it has not yet been determined at what point in the evening, masks will be removed and the true identity of the dancers revealed."

MCCARTER!

October 9 Opening. Summer is already packed away at McCarter and the University's theatre has begun talking about its new fall season, the October 9 opening and three of the "Six Great American Plays to Celebrate" that will be given this year.

The opener is a new play, "A Grave Undertaking," by a young New Jersey playwright, Lloyd Gold. Michael Kahn, producing director for the McCarter Theatre Company, will direct. Opening night is Thursday, October 9.

Two of the six plays scheduled for production this season, will move on from McCarter to the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington for a five-week run.

"The Royal Family" and "The New York Idea" are the pair that will play Washington. One or both, will also go to the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

"The Royal Family," by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber, will star Rosemary Harris, whom Princeton audiences will remember from appearances here in the 1960s. The comedy concerns the affair of the Cavendish family, a theatrical family so closely modeled on the Barrymores that legal action against the playwrights was threatened for a time.

"The New York Idea," written at the turn of this century, was the first play of its time to have the shocking idea of divorce as its central theme. McCarter describes the play as "a martini-dry comedy."

This year, McCarter will have two new regular series in the performance schedule, One– Series "E"– will be on Sunday evenings and a second, "Series J," will be on Saturday afternoons.

Subscription information is available by telephone at 921-8370, or by writing McCarter Theatre, Box 526, Princeton.

Johnnie and Michael Hill, twin pillars of the Devonnes, are now joined by Melanie Moore and Liz Wrigbt, both of New York. Louise Stephenson-Shaw, an original Devonne now on the staff of Mathematica in Princeton, is still on the roster, and will perform when schedules permit.

Johnnie's first film, "Velvet Smooth," is scheduled for release in October. She plays a detective. Michael is still a performer in the TV show, "Love of Life."

FOLK DUO TO APPEAR

At Witherspoon Church. Louis and Sally Killen will appear in concert on Friday, September 12, at 8:15 p.m., at the Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, Witherspoon and Quarry Streets. The concert, sponsored by the Princeton Folk Music Society, is the first of a series of monthly concerts which will present traditional and contemporary folk music.

Louis Killen, one of Britain's leading folk singers, has been performing professionally for more than 12 years. He was instrumental in the revival of interest in British traditional music.

For the past wo years, Louis has been joined on stage by his wife, Sally, an American whose background is steeped in New England traditions and custom.

Louis, a native of Gateshead-on-Tyne, now resides in the U.S. where he has a reputation as an accomplished performer and an authority on his material. His extensive repertoire includes songs, ballads, and stories from his native country.

Together, Louis and Sally Killen perform a variety of solo songs (accompanied acappella) and duets in which their voices form a unique blend of harmonies. They have appeared at a number of festivals and clubs. Louis has recorded several albums both in England and the U.S. A recent recording of Louis and Sally has been released on the Andy's Front Hall label.

Admission to the concert is $2.50 general admission, $2 for students, and $1.50 for Society members. Memberships will be available at the door. For further information, contact Buzz Jobes at (609) 882-5531.

AUDITION.....

For Hightstown Group. Potpourri Players, a community theatre based in East Windsor-Hightstown, is holding auditions for the first production of the season, and anyone interested in any phase of production is invited.

Auditions have been scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday, September 3 and 4 at 8 p.m. in Hightstown High School. Performance dates are the last weekend in October and the first weekend in November.

The play is "Who Killed Santa Claus?" a mystery drama to be directed by Bernie Barcless. The cast calls for two women, in the 25 to 45 age range, and six men from 18 to 50. Mr. Barcless says "all roles are substantial."

BLUEGRASS

Free. The O.G. Compost Band and The Blue Grass Uprising will provide sweet-and-sour harmonies for the next Summer Sounds concert. It's this Thursday at 7:30 p.m., two hours of "Bluegrass on the Grass." (Bring your own blanket if you don't want to be right on the grass.)

Pardee Field, site of what Summer Sounds calls "the pickin' jamboree," is west of Washington Road between Palmer Stadium and Baker Rink. You can either walk from Nassau through the campus or park in lots off Washington, or below the soccer and lacrosse fields off Faculty Road.

Summer Sounds people say they don't know much about the exact nature of the two bands, but it is certain that they've resurrected a forgotten classic, "Papa Went To Sleep and the Hogs Ate Him." It's an old Stanley Brothers Tune. There is a female singer named Kasey Grier and a medley of banjos, guitars, bass, dobro.

If it rains, make it Friday instead.

BALLET CLASS PLANNED

For Children. Mercer County Community College will offer a beginning ballet class for children, ages 5-8 this fall beginoing Saturday, September 6 and concluding December 20.

The course will be taught from 9 to 10 in the Apparatus Gymnasium on the West Windsor campus. Tuition will be $18.

Prospective students may register in advance by remitting payment and registering with the Office of Community Services prior to the beginning of the class. Students may also register on the first day of class with the instructor.

Further information on the course may be obtained by calling the Office of Community Services, 586-4800, extension 227.

JAZZ PROGRAM PLANNED

At Lawrenceville. Teresa Brewer and The World's Greatest Jazz Band will appear in a benefit performance for The Robert Thiele Center for American Popular Music in the Kirby Arts Center of The Lawrenceville School, September 19 at 8:30.

Although hers is a voice from the past - Remember "Music, Music, Music" from 20 years ago? - Theresa Brewer is not selling nostalgia. Today, at 42, she has perfected a jazz style in which only the power and control are reminiscent of the little girl of the 1950's and which has been compared to early Ella Fitzgerald. She disappeared from the record racks in the sixties but not from the night club circuit where she has been appearing steadily through the years, and now she's back again recording for RCA.

Appearing with her at Lawrenceville, The World's Greatest Jazz Band of Yank Lawson and Bob Haggart was formed in 1968. Lawson and Haggart are veterans of some of the big bands of the 1940's (Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, Bob Crosby, etc.) In addition to the two leaders (on trumpet and bass, respectively), the band features Ralph Sutton, former pianist at Eddie Condon's; Bud Freeman, saxaphonist with Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, and Ray Noble; Gus Johnson, Jr., former drummer with Count Basie, Teddy Wilson and others.

The Robert Thiele Center for American Popular Music was launched in 1971 to fill the need for a comprehensive repository and research archive for all forms of popular American music and data relating to it. When equipped as envisioned by its founder, Robert Thiele, a 1942 alumnus of Lawrenceville and well-known figure in the music industry, the collection will consist of sound recordings and tapes, musical scores, composers' notes, memorabilia, reminiscences, books and other printed matter, still and motion pictures, and video tapes, relating to composers and performers, and will cover the era since the first recording of sound.

The Center will sponsor concerts, lectures, seminars, and research projects. Eventually study grants will be awarded for students and professionals in the field of popular music.

Tickets at $10, $7.50 and $5 are available at The Jigger Shop, Lawrenceville, and The University Store, Princeton. Mail orders should enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope, with check or money-order to "Teresa-Jazz," Box 6125, Lawrenceville, N.J. 08648.

McCarter Auditions

General auditions for Equity and non-Equity actors living in the Princeton area will be held at McCarter Theatre Friday, September 5 starting at 10 a.m.

Actors interested in the McCarter Theatre Company should send picture and resume to Marilyn Brictson, and telephone her at 609-452-6123 for an appointment time. No one will be admitted for audition without an appointment. Auditions are solely for actors who have not previously read for Michael Kahn, producing director of the theatre.

OPERA AUDITIONS SET

For 'Hansel and Gretel.' Princeton Opera Association's annual Hallowe'en production of "Hansel and Gretel" will be on the boards again soon. There will be children's auditions held on Saturday, September 13. Contact Virginia Bachalis at 896-0631 to arrange an audition time.

PRINCE

Coonskin is a blend of live and animated footage by 34-year old Ralph Bakshi, who wrote and directed the successful "Fritz The Cat", the first x-rated animated film.

"Coonskin" is an even more successful and more fully realized film from an artistic level. But it is highly controversial. The Congress of Racial Equality has attacked the film, objecting to its portraying blacks as prostitutes and drug pushers. In the film, Bakshi makes his lyric debut with the song "Ah'm A Nigger Man."

This is not for pure enjoyment like the "Pink Panther", but it is an important film, a wild social satire. Bakshi, who draws on many of the rich characterizations and experiences of his childhood that are portrayed in the film, is not just after the blacks; he is negative about everyone and everything in life. The film is unrelenting in its cynicism and pessimism.

One may not agree with Bakshi, but "Coonskin" is so well done, so innovative, that it commands our attention. He is one of the few directors in the industry today that has shown what movies can be in the hands of a creative artist.

PRINCE

Monty Python And The Holy Grail: Elevating silliness to a fine art is no mean feat but it probably accounts for the success of "Monty Python's Flying Circus", a BBC television comedy troupe of six zanies, who in writing and performing a weekly spate of outrageous skits have never let anything as unimportant as a scared cow block their path.

"Monty Python And the Holy Grail" is their second full-length film and their best by far. Using barbs and sight gags to highlight a madcap plot, the group giddily attacks and parodies the King Arthur legend and his search for the legendary chalice.

Among Sir Arthur's entourage: Sir Launcelot, who unwittingly rescues a sickly prince in distress; Sir Galahad the chaste, who stumbles into a castle full of 160 sex-starving maidens; Sir Robin, whose minstrel companion continuously sings of his cowardice, and several more loonies along for the ride.

There is something to offend everyone from masochistic monks to a liturgical service devoted to "The Holy Hand Grenade of Antioch" which the knights use to destroy a bloodthirsty white rabbit. There is also a considerable emphasis on realistic gore but reasonably open minds will find most of it inspired and hilarious.

Among some choice bits are the attempted siege of a French fort using a Trojan Horse shaped like a giant rabbit and the use by French troops of stuffed animals as ammunition.

PLAYHOUSE

Love and Death: After last waking up in the absurd future of "Sleeper" Woody Allen in "Love and Death" goes back to 19th Century Russia and uses every known comic device to turn hallowed Russian novels into non-stop hilarity.

A single viewing will probably make it impossible to ever again read Tolstoy or Dostoyevsky with a straight face. Allen, the actor, is the best he's ever been as the bespectacled Boris, a self-confessed coward, who pressed into joining the Russian troops against Napoleon, not only survives, but emerges as an unwitting hero.

He eventually marries his previously unattainable cousin, Sonja, and the two of them embark to assassinate the diminuitive French emperor. The rest is hysteria.

Allen, the writer and director, has become less reliant on isolated gags and skits. In this film, he puts his usual abundance of verbal humor, insane sight gags, sly slapstick and glaring anachronisms into a framework rich in both theme and characterization. Even his traditional nebbish character has gained stature, emerging more as a thinking man's bumbler.

In addition to countless set pieces-- a "hygiene play" before the regiment of randy soldiers goes on furlough or Napoleon berating his bakers for coming up with a sickly little pastry destined to bear his name-- there are wonderful little mystic interludes scattered throughout the film.

In one, a dead soldier comes back to life so Allen can get back the deposit on an engagement ring he'll never use. "Get a receipt for tax purposes," the dead friend insists.

Filmed in France and Budapest, the film has been produced on a lavish scale with major battle scenes, Slavic villages and actual palaces that add mightily to the net effect. Diane Keaton, who was with Allen in "Sleeper" again co-stars.

FILMS SCHEDULED

By State Museum. Inspired by an exhibition of contemporary Latin-American art in the Main Galleries of the New Jersey State Museum from September 5 through October 27, movies in the Museum Auditorium at 4 p.m. on Sundays during September will center on a Latin-American theme. Youngsters under 12 years old must be accompanied by an adult.

"Latin-American Artists" on September 7 will consist of biographical shorts about painters whose work is being exhibited. On the 14th, "I Am Pablo Neruda" and "The Inner World of Jorge Luis Borges," two selections from the Films for the Humanities collection, will explore Latin-American artistic temperament.

"Companero," the moving story of Chilean folk singer Victor Jara, will provide the film-fare on the 21st; and the series will conclude on the 28th with "Tropici," a feature-length Brazilian dramatic classic with Portuguese dialogue and English subtitles.

Other weekend films at the Museum during September will cater to a variety of interests. Shown at 1 and 3 p.m. on Saturday and at 2 p.m. on Sundays, these programs have no age restrictions.

On the 6th and 7th "All About Film Making" will explore movie production techniques, and on the 13th and 14th "Young Film Makers" will showcase a series of movies produced by young people.

"Cinderella Ballet," a filmed performance by the famed Bolshoi Company, will provide program content on the 20th and 21st; and the younger set will get their chance for equal time on the 27th and 28th with "Dr. Seuss on the Loose," an hour of selected Dr. Seuss stories.

Planetarium Program. The planet Mars and man's efforts to explore it will provide the subject matter for the public program to be presented in the museum's planetarium weekends and holidays from September 6 through October 27.

Titled "Project Viking," the show will focus on the ongoing United States attempt to land two automatic biological laboratories on the planet next summer to search for traces of life. It will include a summary of current knowledge of Mars gathered during past space probes and will indicate what the Viking landers may and may not discover.

"Project Viking" will be presented at 2, 3 and 4 p.m. each Saturday and Sunday during the September 6-October 27 period. Three presentations are scheduled also for Columbus Day (October 13) and Veterans' Day (October 27).

There is no charge for Planetarium programs. Free tickets are distributed first come, first served beginning 30 minutes before each show. Children under seven years old are not admitted, and advance reservations are not accepted.

The State Museum adjoining the Planetarium is open free from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 1 to 5 p.m. weekends and holidays. It is a division of the New Jersey Department of Education.

All ages find Princeton's public library a meeting place. Air-conditioned in summer, cozy in winter, lots of comfortable chairs. Chess and checker games upstairs, earphones for record fans (pop and classic in the collection). Various events– mid-morning "readings" with coffee, family movies– bring people together. You can also check out books.

Library will be open Sunday afternoons from 1 to 5:30 starting October 5.

What about politics? A great way to meet people, and no party ever had enough eager volunteers. Democrats are currently in power in both Princetons although the Borough's mayor is Republican. The Borough will elect a mayor this year, and the incumbent, Republican Robert Cawley, is running again. The Township's mayor is Junius (Jay) Bleiman. He's a Democrat.

If you want to save the Republic by working for your party, here are the people to call: Borough Republican Christine St. John, 924-4296; Borough Democrat Jan Schneier, 921-7436. Township Republican Josie Hall, 921-6792; Township Democrat Kate Litvak, 924-9375.

What do you do on weekends? Go to the movies. (It is not true that "Jaws" is the only movie to have played Princeton. "Birth of a Nation" was shown here, some years back).

Weather permitting, walk the trails of Princeton's own Open Space preserves (see the map you bought) or drive toward Kingston on Route 27, park in the lot provided for you, and walk along the canal. Drive west to the Delaware River and have a picnic where George Washington crossed the river. Delightful state parks on both sides. About a ten-mile drive, and parks are crowded on fine days.

Rain? The University's Art Museum, in a splendid modern building on campus, is open Saturdays and Sundays. In fact, it's open to the public every day except Monday. Take the kids to Guyot Hall, off Washington Road on the University campus, for the town's best collection of dinosaurs. BIG ones.

Weather or no, don't miss the "Newspaper Reader" sitting tranquilly on a bench outside Borough Hall. Not much of a conversationalist, but a nifty conversation piece. Seward Johnson Jr. was the sculptor.

Did you say George Washington? That's right. There was a Battle of Princeton in the Revolution, and if you drive out Mercer Street you'll find the spacious green sward of the Battlefield. (Those Greek columns have only been there about 15 years. There wasn't anyplace else to put them.) "Rockingham," Washington's headquarters, is in Rocky Hill, a ten-minute drive.

Information about Princeton's really impressive historic past may be obtained from the headquarters of the Historical Society of Princeton. It's in the mellow-red brick house next to the Garden Theatre ("Bainbridge House," because the Commodore was born there).

Princeton University, does it run the town? Sometimes University officials, just turned down by the Zoning Board, perhaps, burst into tears when people say this. But the University is, of course, the chief reason the town is here (the other reason is that Princeton is now and always has been, half way between New York and Philadelphia.)

University events are often open to the public. Check TOWN TOPICS calendar each week. You can tour the campus with Orange Key student guides seven days a week (except home-game Saturdays). The free tours leave from in front of Stanhope Hall (walk straight into the campus from the gate at the head of Witherspoon Street. Stanhope is on your right). For hours of tours, call 452-3603.

Who lives here? Everybody. For the best cross-section of Princeton residents, go to the two uptown markets, Davidson's and The Food Mart. You'll see wealthy hostesses from the western section of town, bearded students, little old ladies carefully spending Social Security pennies, Italian housewives (residents of Italian descent are probably Princeton's largest ethnic group), secretaries on lunch hour, middle-aged scholars (male and female).

They all live, shop and work here. And now, so do you.

A $10,000 "Recognition Award" in honor of William L. Wilson, a resident of 225 Jefferson Road and a past mayor of Princeton Township, has been made to Dartmouth College by C.I.T. Financial Corporation. Mr. Wilson, vice-president–public relations for C.I.T., graduated from Dartmouth in 1931.

The announcement was made by John G. Kemeny, president of Dartmouth College, who congratulated C.I.T. Financial Corporation for its program of making grants to the colleges and universities attended by key C.I.T. executives and directors as a way of recognizing the valuable services of those officers of the company.

Dr. Kemeny explained that the $10,000 gift has been designated by Mr. Wilson to serve as an endowment fund with the annual revenue credited to each year's Alumni Fund campaign as a memorial gift in the names of all deceased members of the Class of 1931. On the death of the last member of the class, the endowment will be added to the general funds of the college.

Mr. Wilson was responsible for public relations and corporate advertising a C.I.T. from 1946 through 1973, holding the title of vice president–public relations for most of that period. In addition to these duties, he was responsible for the establishment of The C.I.T. Foundation Inc. and C.I.T. Buildings Corporation, a C.I.T. operating company. He was been an officer and director of both organizations, as well as other C.I.T. operating companies.

Company History, prior to joining C.I.T., Mr. Wilson was director of public relations for the Kellett Aircraft Corporation, of Philadelphia, and director of public and industrial relations for Republic Aviation Corporation. In the 1930s he did newspaper and magazine editorial work as well as public relations work in the governmental area.

Since 1973 Mr. Wilson has been engaged primarily in compiling a definitive history of C.I.T. Financial Corporation and the development of the institution of consumer installment credit in the United States and Canada. Retiring this year, he will coordinate arrangements with the publisher, Random House, for appearance of the history, "Full Faith and Credit." The book is scheduled for publication early in the spring of 1976.

He and his wife, Edna, moved to Princeton in 1947. He was elected to the Princeton Township Committee in 1962, re-elected for a second three-year term in 1964 and served as mayor in 1964. Wilson also served on the township's board of education from 1956 through 1961 with a concurrent three-year term as board president. He is a past member of the Princeton Planning Board and the library board of trustees, having served two terms on each body. The Wilsons raised two sons in Princeton--William Jr. and Thomas C.

Hank Bristol of 210 Mercer Street is one of several lettermen returning to the Bowdoin College varsity sailing team. Bristol is a senior at the Brunswick, Maine, school.

Betty Ellsworth, 1 Berrian Avenue, Princeton Junction, shot an 81 at the Stony Brook Golf Club to win the club's 1975 President's Cup with a net 67. Mrs. Ellsworth also won the cup last year.

Kenneth S. Gould, M.D. has announced the relocation of his office to 20 Nassau Street. Dr. Gould, a psychiatrist, formerly practiced in New Brunswick.

He graduated Phi Beta Kappa from New York University and the New York University School of Medicine. He completed a residency in pediatrics at Bellevue Hospital and the Kings County Hospital and is a diplomate of the American Board of Pediatrics.

He is a graduate of the Institute of the Philadelphia Association for Psychoanalysis. Presently he is psychiatric consultant to the New Brunswick Public School System and is formerly consultant to the Edison Public Schools and Douglass College.

George Eckardt of Coppermine Road, Griggstowo, is being honored this week by Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia at a meeting in Coronado, Calif. Mr. Eckardt, an associate in the firm's Central New Jersey agency, qualified for the Provident Mutual Leaders Association through his record of service during the past 18 months.

Named to the dean's list for the spring semester at Glassboro State College is Patricia Benjamin, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Benjamin, 30 Southern Way.

The Society for Physiological Research has given its award for distinguished contributions to psychophysiology to Robert Edelberg, Ph.D., professor of psychiatry at Rutgers Medical School and a consultant in research to the Carrier Clinic. A resident of Montgomery Township, Dr. Edelberg was cited for his years of leadership in psychophysiology, particularly for his work on galvanic skin responses.

Giants, Steelers to Square Off This Saturday

After 13 years of Giant-Eagle battles, the Jaycee Classic will have a new look this Saturday in Palmer Stadium, when the Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers replace Philadelphia as the Giants' opponent. Kickoff is 2 p.m.

The switch couldn't come at a better time. As intense as their rivalry has always been, the two National Conference teams have never been much better than mediocre over the past decade. In fact, it appeared that the boos had begun to outnumber the cheers for both sides in recent games here.

Pittsburgh will definitely bring a fresh look to the annual contest. After a sluggish start against the College All-Stars, and a 17-14 loss to the Eagles in their exhibition opener, the Steelers have come on.

A narrow defeat at the hands of a strong Oakland Raider squad on August 17 left the champions with an 0-2 mark, and provided the incentive for a 31-10 thrashing of Baltimore last week.

Getting a look at untested personnel in his first two games, coach Chuck Noll went with his regulars throughout much of the Colt game, and the Steelers were near mid-season form. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw directed the winners to 24 of their 31 points, hitting on 14 out of 20 pass attempts good for 254 yards.

Making his first appearance of the season, wide receiver Lynn Swann caught four Bradshaw passes good for 119 yards, including touchdown receptions of 49 and 54 yards.

The Steeler defense gave up an early touchdown to Colt running back Don McCauley, but shut down after that. Baltimore has hardly been a powerhouse in recent years, but with a performance like that, tyhe Steelers have served notice they are getting ready to defend their title.

Giants 3-0... Barely. Thirty-nine yard field goals can hardly be labled routine, but the New York Giants remain undefeated in pre-season play only bnecause the snap on a field goal attempt sailed over the head of the holder.

Had rookie center Joe Fields been on target, the Giants might well have gone off the field last Sunday 23-21 losers against the Jets, instead of one-point winners.

In any case, the New Yorkers have won all three in three attempts, and the real question is: does it mean anything? By playing to win in the exhibition season, Coach Bill Arnsparger says he is trying to instill confidence and a winning attitude in a team that was 2-12 last year.

It might work this time around, but it sure did not a couple of seasons back when Alex Webster tried the same thing. In 1973, the Giants ran through their six-game pre-season schedule with ease, but the momentum carried only as far as their first game against lowly Houston. It was mostly downhill after that.

GIANT STALWART: New York Giant tight end Bob Tucker, one of the premier receivers in the league, will see plenty of action on Saturday against the Steelers.

Morton Will Help. Quarterback Craig Morton, obtained from Dallas last year, has shown he can do the job, and the Giants are knee-deep in good receivers, but many other question marks remain, mostly on defense.

The Jet's J.J. Jones, a third string quarterback, had little trouble moving the ball against the New York defense much of the time. If Joe Namath had seen action, the outcome might well of been different. The absense of top back John Riggins also weakened the Jets' running attack.

Since New England and San Diego can not be considered a valid test of the Giants' ability, Saturday's game with the Steelers will be the first indication of where New York

Good Seats Available

As Saturday approaches, the volume of ticket applications is growing heavier at the Jaycee offices here, but plenty of good seats are still available in Palmer Stadium for the Giant-Steeler contest.

The $12 tickets left are mostly between the 20-yard line and the end zone, but several $6 tickets are left for excellent seats in the end zone at the closed part of the horseshoe.

From all indications, the contest should be one of the best in the 13-year history of the Jaycee Classic. Both coaches are expected to go with first-string personnel as long as the outcome remains undecided.

John Baker is the man to call for tickets, 921-6100 from 9 to 5, and 799-1865 evenings. Ticketron outlets also have them, as does Carduner's Liquor Store, Routes 571 and 130, Hightstown. Naturally, there will be a gate sale Saturday.

SPORTS FANS! I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Brought to you By John Bernard

What was the greatest home run hitting team of all-time -- that is, of all the teams in big league history, which one hit the most homers in one season ... Answer is the 1961 Yankees ... They hit 240 home runs and no other team has ever topped that in one year ... It's also the only team in history where all 3 catchers hit over 20 homers each -- Yogi Berra, Elston Howard and Johnny Blanchard.

One of the most amazing athletic feats in history was compiled by swimmer Johnny Weismuller ... He swam against top competitors for 10 years, from 1920 to 1930, and NEVER lost a race! ... One time he entered a 150-yard backstroke event and even though he had never competed in that event before, he clipped six seconds off the world record!

Tennis star Billie Jean King proves that bad eyesight need not prevent someone from becoming a sports champion ... She can hardly see without glasses, and has 20-400 vision -- yet she's become one of the great tennis players of all-time.

I bet you didn't know that all our insurance companies have a best's financial rating of A+AAAAA- the very best.

is going. The guess here is that Pittsburgh will win, but that better times, very possibly a .500 season or better, are ahead for Arnsparger and his players.

FOOTBALL CLINIC SET

By Tiger Varsity. Princeton University's football team will host its fifth annual football clinic on Saturday, Sept. 13, from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m. at Jadwin Gymnasium. The clinic is aimed at youngsters from ages 8-14, and their parents.

Head coach Bob Casciola will set up a series of stations that will include two—three players from a specific position and one coach. "Those in attendance can then move from station to station, learning the techniques of each position and getting a chance to meet the members of the squad," Casciola said.

A portion of the morning will be set aside for youngsters to take pictures, and there will also be a raffle for tickets to each of Princeton's home games and two official collegiate footballs.

"We consider the football clinic one of our most important public relations projects of the year," Casciola said. "It's an excellent way of introducing young people to Princeton football, which we feel they will enjoy very much."

SEPT. 15 IS START

Of Fall Tennis Classes. Fall tennis classes of the Princeton Community Tennis Program will begin Sept. 15 and run through Oct. 25. More than 4,000 brochures have been mailed, outlining the six-week course of outdoor group tennis lessons.

Adult classes meet for one and one-half hours weekdays and Saturday mornings. To accomodate those who work, there are lessons every evening from 5 to 6:30.

For junior tennis players an after-school program will be held every day from 3:30 to 5 at the Community Park Courts, and on Saturdays there will be afternoon sessions at the Princeton High School.

The fall tennis brochure has a complete listing of instruction for all levels with an application blank that can be mailed to the Tennis Office with the class fee. Copies are available at Varsity Sports, Center Sports, Princeton University Store, Sports 'n Things, Princeton Recreation Office, Hulit's, Hinkson's, University Cleaners and the Tennis Office, 71 University Place. Registration can be made in person at the office from 9 to 5 weekdays. For more information, please call 924-4343.

The three week clinic, for beginners only, will begin September 8 and continue until September 27 and is expected to attract 1600 residents. Bill Stoner, Park Commission Pro, and his assistants will teach fundamentals to all interested beginners, women, men and children.

Clinics for women will be held daily on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, and on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Men's clinics will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The children's clinics will be held on Saturday mornings and on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon.

Those interested must sign an application form at the Tennis Center at the following times: Tuesday, September 2 thru Friday, September 5 between 9 and 12 noon, and from 4 to 8 p.m. The last day for sign-up will be Saturday, September 6, 9 to 1. controlled scrimmage, and then revert to one workout a day beginning on Sept. 15. Princeton will open its 1975 season on Sept. 27 when it hosts Rutgers at Palmer Stadium.

Two members of the 1974 team who figured to help the Tigers this year, junior defensive back Bob Daly and junior linebacker Eric Scholl, have decided to take a year off from school. They will return in 1976. Otherwise, Casciola expects between 90-95 players to report for pre-season workouts.

With several experienced lettermen returning, including quarterback Ron Beible, plus a good contingent from last year's freshman team, Princeton is given a good chance to make a run at the Ivy title for the first time since 1970.

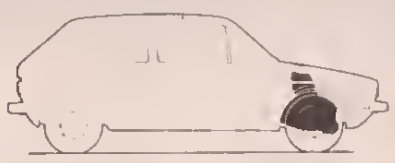
A PINTO DOESN'T HAVE THE GUTS TO BE A RABBIT.

Pinto claims to be a better buy than a Volkswagen Rabbit
But it's really not
Because when you add up all the features that are standard on a Rabbit and optional on a Pinto, plus all the features you can't even get on a Pinto, you come to a startling conclusion
The Rabbit is not only a better engineered car.
It's a bargain at the price



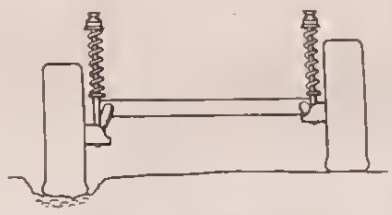
The Rabbit has front-wheel drive. Like an Eldorado and a Toronado.

Features that are standard on a Rabbit and that cost more on a Pinto.
They compare a 2-door Pinto to a 3-door hatchback Rabbit. How much does a hatchback Pinto cost? $215 extra*
To get the some kind of performance as a Rabbit (0 to 50 in 8.2 seconds), you have to order a larger 6-cylinder engine with a special rear axle. $272 extra on the Pinto.*
Of course, with the larger engine you'd only get 22 mpg on the highway and 16 in the city

The Rabbit has the engine mounted sideways to give you more passenger space.

The Rabbit gets 38 mpg on the highway and 24 mpg in the city So driving an average of 12,000 miles a year, you'd spend about $10 extra for gas every month with the Pinto.
To get the same effortless 3.3 turn lock-to-lock steering as a Rabbit, you'd have to get power steering on the Pinto. $117 extra*

Features on a Rabbit that you can't get on a Pinto at any price.
Front-wheel drive. This gives the Rabbit greater tracking and stability. Not available on the Pinto.
Dual diagonal braking system. If one braking system should fail, another is there to help stop the car. Not available on the Pinto.
Negative steering roll radius. This helps stop a Rabbit in a straight line. Not available on the Pinto.
4 wheel independent suspension. This gives added riding comfort and better handling on rough roads. Not available on the Pinto.



The Rabbit has 4-wheel independent suspension. Like a Porsche.
Interior room. The Rabbit is much roomier than a Pinto. In fact, it has as much leg and head room as some mid-size cars.
Visibility. A Rabbit has more overall glass area than the Pinto's big brother, the Lincoln Mark IV.

Protection. The Rabbit is built so well it's covered by the Volkswagen Owner's Security Blanket, the most advanced car coverage plan in the world.

The hatchback on a Rabbit is standard. On a Pinto, it's extra.
You should also listen to the experts. Popular Mechanics called the Rabbit "The Best Value For 1975" and Road and Track named it "The Best Sedan Under $3500."
But test drive the Rabbit yourself. It's really the best way to tell what they leave out of a Pinto to make it so cheap.
